OTHER INFO

SWAG FAIRY

Be on the lookout for the SWAG Fairy and/or random drawings. We have some awesome swag from McDowell Mountain Cycles.

BEER GARDEN

Bring your Chino Grinder finisher pint from Team Charity Case, don't forget your wrist band, to the Chino Beer Garden for a free beer. Support Chino Valley Chamber of Commerce when you purchase another!

FOOD TRUCKS

Kades Coffee will be there Saturday morning to get you going, and La Piña Sabrosa will be on site to feed you tasty burritos at the finish.

VENDORS

Make sure to check out our awesome sponsors and vendors on site: Squirt Cycling, Drip'd IV Therapy, Cyclologic, Team Charity Case, Parch, Moxi, and more.

RULES

#1. BE A KIND RATIONAL HUMAN

#2. COURSE RULES

- Riders MUST obey all traffic laws. While traffic will be minimal, THIS IS NOT A CLOSED COURSE.
- BE AWARE and BE SAFE.
- Riders are required to strictly obey any law enforcement persons or official event personnel. Failure to do so may result in DQ and inability to participate in future events.
- Riders must stay right of center line on all paved segments and right of center on all dirt roads.
- Passing permitted on the left only AND only when safe. Let the rider ahead know you are there (i.e. audibly call "ON YOUR LEFT!")

#3. EQUIPMENT RULES

- All riders must wear a helmet.
- All bikes must have functioning front and rear brakes.
- E-bikes are only permitted, non-competitively, on the 40 and 20-mile routes.
- RIDERS MAY NOT DRAFT E-BIKES.
- Aero bars (TT bars) are NOT permitted on the 60, 40, or 20 mile routes.

#4. SUPPORT RULES

- No outside support is permitted, by anyone, anywhere on the course.
- Aid Stations are provided for all riders,

- USE THEM.
- No domestiques. Groups shall be organic. Chino is a solo mission.
 - Riders will be DQ'd and banned from future events if a vehicle connected to them travels on the course during the event.

#5. KNOW THE COURSE

- Riders are responsible for their navigation and staying on course. This is easily accomplished by having either a GPS device with the downloaded route and/or printed cue sheet/directions from official routes posted on chinogrinder.com.

#6. DNFS

- If you turn around before your designated turnaround, you have cut the course and MUST report to the timing booth as a DNF (Did Not Finish). Please turn around if you need to, we want you back safe, but let us know so we're not out there looking for you.

#7. SHARE THE SPACE

- You will encounter others (ranchers, hunters, locals, off-roaders, campers, etc.) not associated with or aware of the Chino Grinder. Share the space.

#8. DON'T LITTER

- Respect the space

VENUE/PARKING/CAMPING

LOCATION

OLD HOME MANOR PARK
2100 E PERKINSVILLE ROAD
CHINO VALLEY, AZ

PARKING

We have plenty of parking. Please follow traffic signs and be respectful of others. Once racing begins there will be no access to the parking areas from OLD HOME MANOR Road.

CAMPING

The campground will open at 3pm on Friday, September 27, 2024. RV/TRAILERS, CAR CAMPING, TENTS permitted in areas as indicated. No RV hookups. No generators permitted in TENT CAMPING areas. Bring potable water.

WASTE REDUCTION

Our goal is to reduce the amount of landfill waste and minimize our impact on the environment. We encourage everyone to bring reusable items whenever possible. We encourage the LEAVE NO TRACE principles so please pack up your trash around your campsite before you leave. Pack it in, pack it out!

CAMPFIRES

DOGS

Dogs are welcome, BUT must be on a leash at all times. Please be courteous to others and bring poop bags and clean-up after them.

WATER

There is no potable water source onsite for use while camping. Come prepared. Water is available at the town rec center a mile away. There's also a convenience store a short distance back into town.
